

Marriage Preparation

Imagine: Discovering A New Love,
Joy, Laughter, Passion and Purpose
For Your Spouse!

You CAN begin making positive changes, NOW, to create and maintain a meaningful, purpose-filled marriage. This type of marriage is a brand new marriage and I'll show you how.

Welcome.

You're at a crossroads, either externally or internally, and you want to infuse your marriage with love again.

Your marriage is struggling because ...

you don't know the purpose of marriage...

you got married before you discovered who you are as an individual

These two points alone, if found before marriage or during marriage, can eradicate problems such as:

- 1 Infidelity: because of boredom in bedroom, boredom in marriage, marrying too young, lack of commitment to each other and the institution of marriage.
- 2 Communication issues: not effectively communicating wants and needs, poor communication during disagreements, not communicating on the same level about the kids, not understanding sexual needs
- 3 Stress from: financial issues, too much arguing, family issues, high expectations, infidelity

If any (or all) of this resonates with you, I'm so glad you're here.

You are not alone.

Things aren't working out exactly like you'd hoped and expected.

Bottom line: you know you need a change in order to have a wonderful purpose-filled marriage.

But ... you have no idea where to begin.

And because you aren't sure how to fix this situation, the questions set in:

- "What did I do wrong?"
 - "Why doesn't my spouse love me?"
 - "Will I have to settle for something less than what I want?"
 - "How will this affect the kids?"
 - "How do I start over?"
 - "I've tried so hard to make this work, already."
- "Should I just give up?"
 - "How will I afford to live if I leave?"

I Want You to Know That It IS Possible to Discover New Love in Your Marriage

No Matter How Old You Are, How Many Years You've Been Together, Once You Discover God's Purpose For Your Marriage You Will Discover New Love!

When you discover God's purpose for you & your marriage, you love your life again. You have FUN, you become one with your spouse

Sounds great, right?

In fact, right now you may be thinking, "Yes! That does sound great, but HOW?"

Great question.

I understand where you're coming from, because I've been in your shoes.

That's why helping you create a working plan for finding and living a Purpose Driven Marriage is so important to me, and that's why I'm giving you this step-by-step guide to help you do so.

My process is to work with you the individual first starting with your commitment to God. He has to be your foundation as an individual. Your commitment to God is more important than your commitment to each other. That is because your commitment to him is what holds you together through every storm. We develop you into who you need to become to have all the things you want in life including owning your own happiness. Your marriage will only be as good as you are as an individual. Once we have you were you need to be as an individual we work on exercises for your marriage. Remember in the beginning God made them male and female first. That means he put his workmanship on them as individuals before they became husband and wife. Most of us are the workmanship of our parents, society and our circumstances. That's why the foundation of a new marriage begins with the renewing of you through God's word. That is where we will find what his workmanship of us is meant to be and we can start walking in the spirit, not the flesh.

Now, it's time to do the "work"! Accept these 5 steps as truth. Once you accept them as truth, contact me for the exercises that will make your marriage new.

5 Steps to Finding a New Loving Purpose Filled Marriage

Step 1. Understand We are Here for God's Purpose

Understand that we are here for God's purpose. We are not here for ourselves. Once we understand that and believe that, as we should because we are believers, the next steps to our lives become more simple.

Step 2. Deny Yourself Daily

Now that we understand we are here for God's purpose then we can begin to deny ourselves, our wants, and our ways. You are no longer living for yourself

Luke 9:23 "And he said to them all, if any man will come after me, let him deny himself, and take up his cross daily and follow me."

Luke 9:24 "For whosoever will save his life shall lose it: but whosoever will lose his life for my sake, the same shall save it."

Luke 17:33 "If you cling to your life, you will lose it, and if you let your life go, you will save it."

Matthew 10:39 "If you cling to your life, you will lose it; but if you give your life for me, you will find it."

Step 3. Putting on your new nature

Ephesians 4:24 "Put on your new nature, created to be like God—truly righteous and holy."

Putting on your new nature is the secret to it all. This is how you become ready for marriage. Once you put on your new nature and your spouse puts on their new nature you give yourselves up to be more like Christ. Once you become more like Christ you both mirror each other on the inside. This sets you up to become one. Your new nature makes you able to take care of each other as one flesh.

Step 4. Study the Purpose of Marriage

You studied and trained for everything you ever wanted to be successful in. You studied to be a nurse, doctor, lawyer etc. Every job you ever had, you had to train for it.

Why didn't you study and train before you got married?

1. What does the bible say about the purpose of marriage?
2. Who do I need to become to be a person qualified for marriage?
3. How do I become this person that's qualified for marriage?

Step 5. Become One with Your Spouse

Ephesians 5:28-31 In the same way, husbands ought to love their wives as they love their own bodies. For a man who loves his wife actually shows love for himself. No one hates his own body but feeds and cares for it, just as Christ cares for the church. And we are members of his body. As the Scriptures say, "A man leaves his father and mother and is joined to his wife, and the two are united into one.

Emotionally, spiritually, intellectually, financially, and in every other way the two have become one the moment they laid together. We must truly accept that the person we are married to is one with us. We must understand in God's eyes if that person is hurting or in need then so are we. The head can't go where the legs won't take it. If you only care for the right side of the body and not left, you are still hurting yourself. You can't fight a battle with one side of your body; you need both to be prepared. You are ultimately holding yourself back. When the spirit joins two together you are powerful beyond belief. That's why the enemy wants you divided. When you are divided you are weak. When you are weak it is easier to attack you individually and your kids. The enemy goal is to divide you. It's hard to defeat a house with both parents especially when God is leading them both in the battle tied in spirit as one.

Bonus Tip: Watch Out for This Common Pitfall: Isolating yourself.

Surround yourself with a community or group of likeminded people with whom you can research with, and to whom you can turn for support and accountability.

Now, here's the key: don't just let anyone in! Be mindful. Your community of support should be made up of specific types of people.
